

Terms & Conditions

- Submissions shall be made by the principal researcher*.
- The work should fall within the Award's field and be applicable within the Kingdom.
- The submitted work shall be original and completed within a national research institution.
- Applicants shall possess a doctoral degree and not have more than five years elapsed since its attainment.
- Applicants should actively engage in research, development, and innovation within the Award's field.
- Applications shall be submitted through the Award's official website during the specified registration period, and all forms and required documents should be completed in English. Incomplete applications may be subject to exclusion.
- In the event of not winning, the same work can be resubmitted for consideration in each new Award cycle.
- Previous Award winners are ineligible to apply.

*Principal Researcher: The principal investigator, corresponding author responsible researcher, principal innovator, or team leader.